

The Fine Arts League of Cary
Annual Members Show 2020 Prospectus

The Fine Arts League of Cary (FALC) will be holding its Annual Members Show from Tuesday, December 1st, 2020 through Sunday, January 31 2021. All members are welcome to enter one piece of two-dimensional artwork which will be exhibited on the Page-Walker Arts & History Center, Town of Cary Website and the Fine Art League of Cary's website and Facebook Page.

Please read this prospectus thoroughly as there is important information throughout related to submitting artwork for the show.

Please check the dates carefully as entered pieces may not be withdrawn after submitted. Works not meeting the requirements of the prospectus will be rejected.

Show Chair: Aditi Majumdar

Judge: Dara Baldwin

Dara Baldwin is currently the Gallery Assistant at the Durham Art Guild in Durham, NC. She received her Bachelor's degree from UNC-Chapel Hill in Art History with a minor in Religious Studies. Dara attended Durham School of the Arts through high school. Then, she attended Savannah College of Art and Design in Savannah, GA immediately upon graduation. Art study and creation is very important to her and she understands the value of the arts to the local community. She believes art is a way for any person to express themselves creatively, as well as share and meditate upon life experiences.

Calendar of Events:

Artwork submission by email to falcartshow@gmail.com by Sunday, November 15th 11:55 PM

Opening of Show Tuesday, December 1, 2020 (Online - link shall be provided later)

Entry Requirements and Eligibility:
