Entry Requirements and Eligibility:

All members of FALC are eligible to submit one piece of artwork. There is no entry fee; however a 15% donation to FALC is requested for any artwork that is sold.

Two-dimensional works of art, including works on canvas and photography, are eligible for entry in the exhibition. Photography printed on canvas is not permitted. Work must be entirely the original work of a single artist and executed within the last three years. Artwork should be family-friendly and appropriate for the general public. Works must not have been exhibited in previous FALC shows. Your submission must be originally conceived using your own or copyright free reference. Paintings created in an instructional setting, including private instruction, workshops and art classes are not considered original artwork. No copies, mechanical reproductions, molds or kit work will be accepted.

All artwork must be dry, securely framed, and wired properly for hanging. Saw tooth hangers are not acceptable. Glass glazing is acceptable up to 18" x 24". Please use plexiglass/acrylic on larger pieces. The maximum weight for any piece is 18 lbs. Edge-wrapped canvases (no staples showing) must have edges painted to match or complement the artwork.

Size Limitations: Work must not be over 30" wide or 40" in height, INCLUDING THE FRAME. Please measure your framed artwork before submitting a piece. All participants and accepted pieces must abide by these measurements.

Show dates and the Venue: All entries whether sold or unsold, must stay in place during the entire show until Tuesday, January 4, 2022. The Page-Walker Center has many events during the holiday season, and cannot have spaces empty in the display. Please do not enter pieces that cannot stay until January 4th. Please make arrangements to have someone pick-up your artwork if you are unable to do so on January, 4th during the designated times.

A 15% donation to FALC is requested on all artwork sold.

Liability

All entries will be handled with the best care possible. FALC, its members, and the Page-Walker Art and History Center, shall not be responsible for any loss or damages due to any cause. By entering the show, the artist agrees to indemnify and hold harmless said entities, and to abide by all requirements and conditions of this prospectus.
